

A close-up photograph of several purple iris flowers in bloom. The flowers have six petals each, with some showing white and yellow markings on the lower petals. The background is a soft-focus mix of brown and green, suggesting a garden setting. The text "Garden Guide Training" is overlaid in the center in a large, black, sans-serif font.

Garden Guide Training

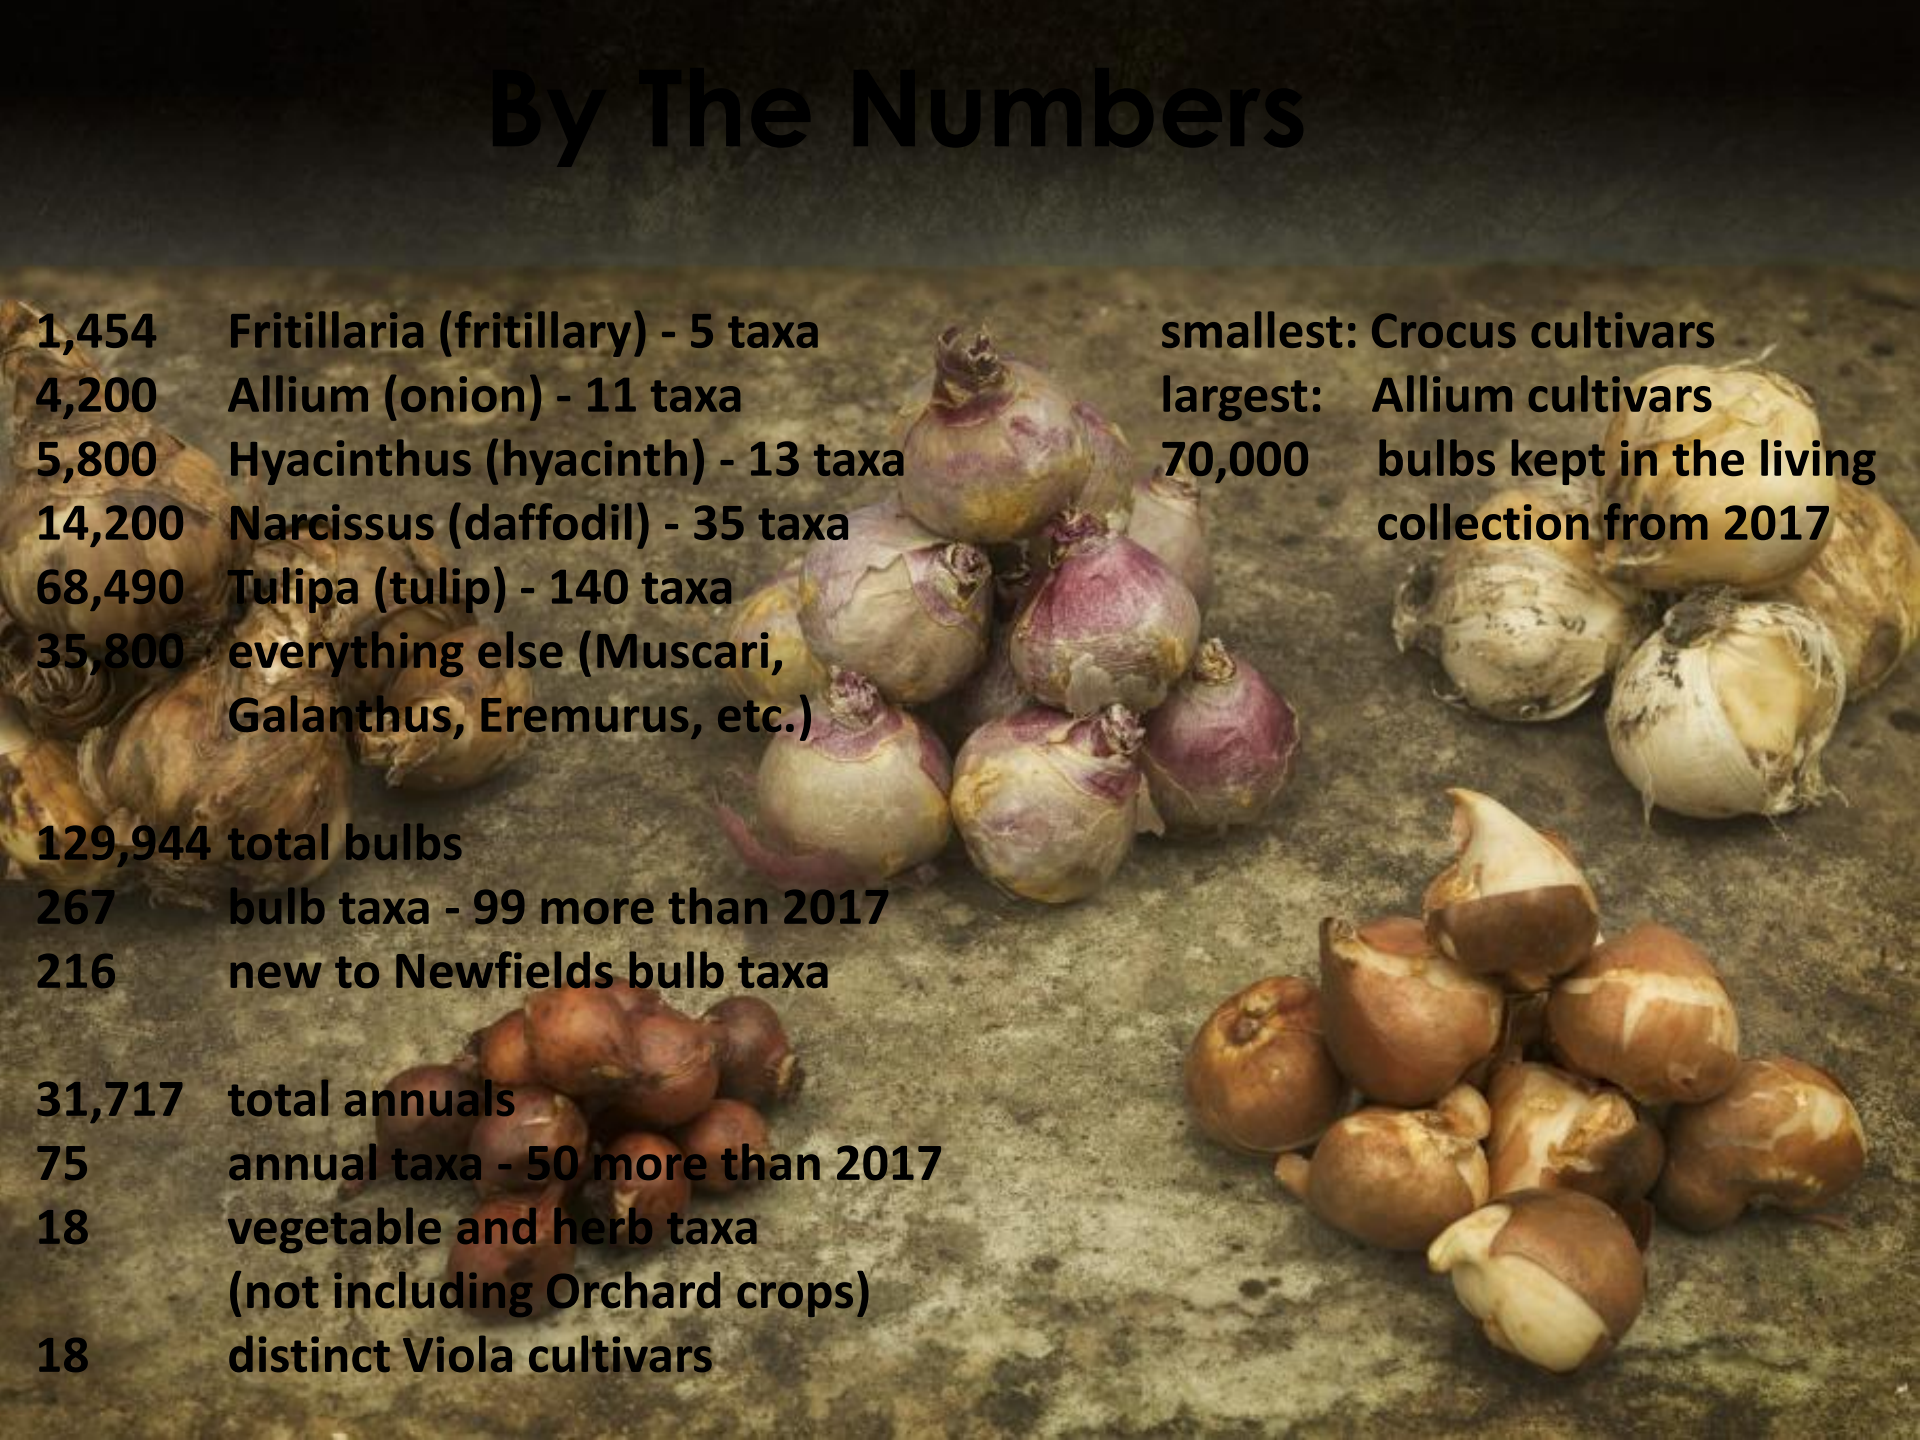

March 24, 2018

Spring Blooms 2018

Plants To Look Forward To

By The Numbers

1,454 Fritillaria (fritillary) - 5 taxa
4,200 Allium (onion) - 11 taxa
5,800 Hyacinthus (hyacinth) - 13 taxa
14,200 Narcissus (daffodil) - 35 taxa
68,490 Tulipa (tulip) - 140 taxa
35,800 everything else (Muscari, Galanthus, Eremurus, etc.)

smallest: Crocus cultivars largest: Allium cultivars
70,000 bulbs kept in the living collection from 2017

129,944 total bulbs
267 bulb taxa - 99 more than 2017
216 new to Newfields bulb taxa

31,717 total annuals
75 annual taxa - 50 more than 2017
18 vegetable and herb taxa
(not including Orchard crops)
18 distinct Viola cultivars

winter-aconite
Eranthis hyemalis
RANUNCULACEAE
Iraq & Turkey

Ilex verticillata 'Jim Dandy'
2017-024* A
Brehob

imperial fritillary
Fritillaria imperialis
'Rubra'
LILIACEAE

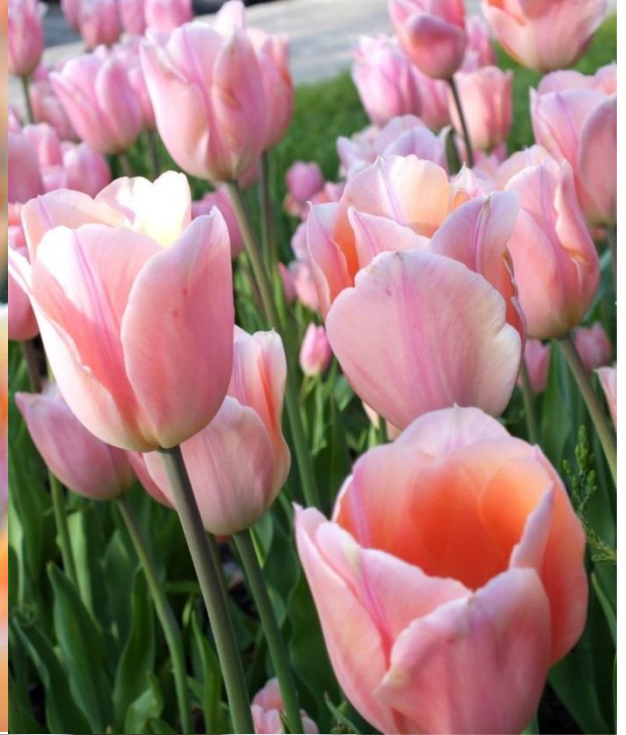

Thank You!

Newfields Photography Team

Tom Mueller

Questions?

Garden Guide Training

March 24, 2018

Garden Guide Training

March 24, 2018